

EASE THOSE TIRED,
ACHING MUSCLES

Outdoor and indoor workers, subject to exposure or heavy toil, find relief in Sloan's Liniment

BEEN at work all day, standing on your feet, lifting heavy weights? And now you're all tired out. Never mind, if you are wise you have a bottle of Sloan's Liniment at hand. It's in the shop. Put a little on, rub it in, and you'll find it's the best remedy for aching muscles, and quickly comes grateful warmth and relief.

Good for rheumatic pains, neuralgia, sciatica, lumbago and the host of external pains that are all the time coming. Helps break up colds, too!

It's comforting to keep it handy. Three sizes—35c, 70c, $1.40.

Sloan's Liniment (Pain's enemy)

AT THE PALACE.

Receivers	Box Office	Percentage
Fuller	100	95
Lee	100	95
Stodolky	100	95
Quatro	100	95

Box Office	Percentage
Fuller	100
Lee	100
Stodolky	100
Quatro	100

Famous Five.

Box Office	Percentage
Fuller	100
Lee	100
Stodolky	100
Quatro	100

Tannings.

Box Office	Percentage
Fuller	100
Lee	100
Stodolky	100
Quatro	100

PLAINFIELD SOCCER TEAM

Manager Knickerbocker received word last evening that the Plainfield boys would make their first appearance here this season Saturday, on the Providence street grounds at 2:30 o'clock. The management has a fast bunch of players to pick from as H. P. Johnson, J. Hallas, F. Greenhalgh, J. Doran, A. Bjork, T. Holton, V. Caron, A. Finlayson, P. Wallin, J. Greenhalgh, W. Maister, H. Mills, J. Murphy, T. Parsons and Knickerbocker.

DE ORO DEFEATED GREENLEAF

AT POCKET BILLIARDS
New York, Nov. 3.—Alfred De Oro defeated Ralph Greenleaf, the world's professional pocket billiard champion, 300 to 284, in the final match of their 300 point three cushion exhibition match here tonight. De Oro won the fifth ball this afternoon, 50 to 42. Greenleaf had a high run on seven in the afternoon session, and a 100. Greenleaf won tonight's block, the sixth and final 30 to 20. Tonight's block was run out in 45 minutes.

NELSON WON HIS FINAL GAME

IN BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP
Chicago, Nov. 3.—Orville Nelson of Rochester, N. Y., won his final game in the national pocket billiard championship tournament today, defeating Irwin Rudolf of Barre, Vt., 15 to 12 in 35 minutes. Rudolf had a high run of 43. Nelson's best was 23. Nelson won five of his eleven games in the tournament.

CHIPS FROM SHATTERED CLAYS.

By Peter P. Carney.
T. E. Boreman, a former president of the American Trapshooting Association, and now the eastern general manager for the duPont Export Company, has been elected president of the Rotary Club of Shanghai, China. He is shooting from scratch in the trapshooting tournaments there. Trapshooting is quite a sport in China. There is a 150 ft. target in 25 ft. also, there. We kick about the high prices of goods here, but read this: Shell that cost $1.10 a box of 25 here cost $1.50 a box in Shanghai and $12.50 a box in Tientsin.

Alabama is boasting of a boy shooter who looks like a real champion. He is not. Nelson, 16 years old, of Selma. He broke 244 out of 300 targets in the state shot, broke 94 from 18 yards in the handicapped event and tied for first and in a 100 target event he broke 97. He doesn't have to improve much to be a real star. That some people have different ideas of what is good trapshooting was very well illustrated in a recent event in which Mr. Tupperman was shooting in his usual snappy style, breaking them about 20 yards from the trap house. A spectator remarked:

"Gee! that woman is some shooter; look how she busts them."

The individual whom the remark was addressed replied:

"She sure does bust 'em, but look at that other fellow. He breaks them away out there—he gives them a chance."

When he won the Hazard Trophy the day prior to the Grand American with 97 breaks in 50 pairs, "Kip" Elbert of 196 Mines, Ia., established a new amateur record and tied the professional record recently made by Charles Spencer. The previous record was 98.

Balboa Heights in the Canal Zone has a trapshooting club with 25 members, 15 per cent. of the population. It is a house that has a rifle and pistol range, bath, etc. Looks as if we have to go away from home to find the ideal shooting club. More than 10,000 targets are thrown each month at this club.

Our shooters to the Olympic games bring home the word that the shooters of the European nations became convinced through the shooting in the English championships and in the Olympic games that the style in vogue in the United States was the best and it wouldn't be surprising to see our style in use on the continent within the next year.

The police and firemen of San Antonio, Tex., practice trap and revolver shooting once each month; a regiment of 1,000 sharpshooters has been organized in the New York police department, and the employees of the largest banking houses in the world now practice with firearms so as to know what to do in case of necessity. It shows the trend of the times.

A Strong Team.

The swift undersubscribing of our new $100,000 loan to France shows that sympathy and a 5 per cent. make a strong team.—Boston Herald.

CUT THIS OUT—IT IS WORTH MONEY

Out of this slip, enclose with 3c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2335 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, for pain in back and back rheumatism, backache, bladder and bladder trouble; Foley's Catarrh Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic for constipation, piles, hemorrhoids, and sluggish bowels. Lee & Osgood.

ACADEMY ELEVEN

N. F. A. preparing for their game Saturday with Bulkeley High had the best workout of the season yesterday afternoon when they lined up against La Stanley's "Roaches" in a steady scrimmage lasting about one hour and a quarter. Each team scored 10 touchdowns but N. F. A. was ahead by kicking 3 goals from touchdowns while the Roaches failed in every attempt.

The Academy showed up well, especially the line, although not familiar enough with the new set of signals and Coach McKay is much encouraged. The Academy line is greatly strengthened by the return of Crocker, the brainy center who, being a fifth year man, has been barred from previous contests through school rulings. Sage who has been playing the center position in spectacular fashion is shifted to tackle. Brown, centrally located, is to guard. The Red and White line as it now stands is a match for the best of them.

In the Roaches' lineup yesterday were the names of many one time N. F. A. stars and some of the best semi-pros in and around Norwich. La Stanley of Catholic U. was quarterback for Chief Roach and with him in the backfield were Ray Gounihan, The Rose of the West's Land, Fred Williams of the giant Hardig back and Handy Hal Hull. The line was composed of huskies employed on the Cape Cod.

The Roaches gave the boys great practice in breaking up forwards, this mode of attack being used freely throughout the game and many times with great success. Coach McKay will use the remaining few days in getting the new formations and plays running smoothly. There will be no more scrimmaging. Brown now is doing the kicking from the touchdowns and he holds them over consistently. One of these little kicks may decide the Bulkeley game for all we know.

PATRIA TEAM TO PLAY IN

PLAINFIELD SUNDAY

The Patria team of Art. R. L. will play Plainfield's soccer football team Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Plainfield. The team will use the following men: McClung, goal; Walker and Hallas fullbacks; Polisher, Dones and Provost halfbacks; Pritchard, Rowie, Walton, Major and Alexander forward.

MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS GET

NOTICE OF BASEBALL MEETING

New York, Nov. 3.—Invitation to attend the baseball meeting in Chicago November 5, were sent today to President Ban Johnson of the American League and to the heads of the National and American clubs by President John Heydler of the National league. Mr. Heydler was temporarily chairman of the preliminary meeting, which approved the plan to place control of baseball in the hands of men not connected with the sport. At this meeting only three American clubs, New York, Chicago and Boston, were represented.

The purpose of the meeting, Mr. Heydler stated, is to appoint a drafting committee to meet with a committee selected by the National Association of American Leagues. This joint committee is to prepare an agreement embodying such new organic provisions for the maintenance of the national game and to so reorganize the government thereof as to assure the public that the sport is conducted in a proper manner.

WRESTLING HARD

Wesleyan Eleven Preparing to Meet Amherst Saturday

Middletown, Conn., Nov. 3.—Having established a reputation for being one of the strongest of the medium-sized college teams in the East, the undefeated Wesleyan University eleven is now preparing to meet Amherst here Saturday in one of the hardest games on the schedule. Only once this fall has the Red and Black line been crossed and that was during the N. Y. U. games which resulted in a tie, 13-13. R. Y. State, Rochester, Trinity and Columbia are the teams which have tasted defeat at the hands of the Middletown warriors.

That Wesleyan must and shall win from Amherst this week is the determination of every man on the squad and in the college body. Last year Wesleyan lost its only game on the wearers of the Purple and White. Although comparative scores cannot always be depended upon to forecast a game, two weeks ago Wesleyan walked through Columbia at a 10-0 pace, while the week preceding witnessed Amherst's fall before the same team for a 20-7 count.

Capt. Berlew at center, Hubbell at back the drop kicking quarter, and "Chief" Meyer and Newhall at half and full, respectively, have performed well for the Red and Black and will probably figure prominently in Saturday's game. Meyer is a speedy broken field runner. Newhall is good for substantial gains through the line, while Peck is rated by the leading sporting writers of New York as the premier drop kicker of the East.

The junior and senior national A. U. track and field team championship titles for this year will be recorded as vacant in athletic history because of the fact that the programs of standard events in both sports were completed in the games held in July at the Harvard stadium.

Tommy Armour, the Scotch holder of the French amateur golf title, won his first chief cup since coming to this country last week in Philadelphia. Armour evidently plays a "swift" game. Colgate seems to have sunk far below her former standard. Even veteran players have been defeated. All-American caliber is a greater loss than any college can stand if it aspires to a championship. That fact, the Maroon's defeat by Brown and the two early season ties with weak opponents proves only too well.

SPORTING NOTES.

"Life is just a big gamble, anyway, so I may as well try this," is the answer W. G. Liesert of Jamestown makes to all questions as to his proposal to shoot Niagara Falls on Monday night in a barrel. Liesert fought in France with the Canadian forces and later with the Americans and was gassed.

Any person or persons desiring to buy pennant-winning and near-victory championship baseball team may open communication with Charles Ebbert, who says he will sell the Brooklyn club and retire from the game.

Jack Kearns reiterated today his denial that Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, would go to England to defend his title, with the declaration that he knew of no inducement that could persuade either himself or the champion to leave his home.

Whether the president-elect and his party will make the detailed arrangements and spend the day in consultation with James Sloan, another former White House chief who left the service last June to accept a private post as Mr. Harding's personal bodyguard during the campaign.

In the exchange of telegrams today between Senator Harding and Governor Cox, no words were wasted on either side in reference to the fighting lines of the leaders of the campaign.

"In the spirit of America," telegraphed the governor, "I accept the decision of majority, tender as the defeated candidate my congratulations, and pledge as a citizen my support to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise."

To which Senator Harding replied: "As the successful candidate I thank you for your message of congratulation and pledge of support."

From former President William Howard Taft came this telegram: "I congratulate you and the nation and the world on your triumph and election by an unprecedented majority. I felicitate you and the country also upon your having a good working majority."

Now that the political complexion of the next administration is known definitely, gossip about cabinet selections is reviving and enough names to fill a cabinet are being mentioned in current rumors as likely timber for the official circle of President Harding. Both Mr. Harding and his close advisers have indicated, however, that all of these forecasts are purely speculative and that the question of choosing a cabinet is one yet to be taken up.

In this under-current of speculation, which apparently is without sanction of authority, the names heard most often as possible cabinet officials include those of Elihu Root, Philander C. Knox, Henry Cabot Lodge, Charles E. Hughes, Herbert Hoover, Major Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden, former Senator John W. Weeks, Harry M. Daugherty and many others.

Resides cabinet officials, Mr. Harding will have an army of silver federal appointees to select, a fact which was brought to his realization with new force

Warmth—
when and where you need it

KEEP the house warmed all over with your regular heater—and supply the rooms you want to use with the additional comfort-point warmth of a Perfection Oil Heater. It gives out just the heat you require, where you want it, when you need it.

How to exercise the greatest economy in house heating

Rooms and hallways that are used only a few minutes each day are a constant source of wasted heat, greater, probably, than you imagine. Don't "rush" your hot air or steam heater to make only two or three rooms comfortable.

The Perfection Oil Heater has solved the heating problem in over a million homes. It is ornamental anywhere and easy to carry about—weighs only a few pounds. A child can light it—and take care of it, for that matter. It burns for about 10 hours on a single gallon of kerosene.

Most hardware, housefurnishing and department stores sell the Perfection, in blue or black finish, with or without nicked trimmings. Ask your dealer to show you one.

For best results use Socony Kerosene.

PERFECTION Oil Heaters

STANDARD OIL CO. OF NEW YORK

of the campaign turned specifically to the senatorial situation, and it was known in the inside circles of the party that it was to aid republican senatorial candidates more than for any other cause that he left his front porch and made a swing around the circle of states where the present senate majority was receiving its heaviest attacks.

HARDING WATCHING

MAKE-UP OF CONGRESS

(Continued from Page One)

of the campaign turned specifically to the senatorial situation, and it was known in the inside circles of the party that it was to aid republican senatorial candidates more than for any other cause that he left his front porch and made a swing around the circle of states where the present senate majority was receiving its heaviest attacks.

As for his own fortunes, he said today that he never had been in doubt for a moment from the time of his nomination. He had a substantial majority in the tremendous majorities piled up for him, however, declaring the result had overreached his fondest hopes.

Mr. Harding was not inclined to regard the triumph as a personal one. As he told many of his audiences during the campaign, his feeling was that the decision would be made on issues rather than candidates, and that the league of nations and the record of the Wilson administration at home were the determining factors.

The avalanche of congratulatory messages addressed to the president-elect and Mrs. Harding, according to the result, and the senator in a still briefer message thanked him. When Mr. Harding looked in at his office at the end of the afternoon, no word had yet been received from President Wilson.

Now that the political complexion of the next administration is known definitely, gossip about cabinet selections is reviving and enough names to fill a cabinet are being mentioned in current rumors as likely timber for the official circle of President Harding. Both Mr. Harding and his close advisers have indicated, however, that all of these forecasts are purely speculative and that the question of choosing a cabinet is one yet to be taken up.

In this under-current of speculation, which apparently is without sanction of authority, the names heard most often as possible cabinet officials include those of Elihu Root, Philander C. Knox, Henry Cabot Lodge, Charles E. Hughes, Herbert Hoover, Major Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden, former Senator John W. Weeks, Harry M. Daugherty and many others.

Resides cabinet officials, Mr. Harding will have an army of silver federal appointees to select, a fact which was brought to his realization with new force today as the petitions of office-seekers began to pile up in his office in full swing. His friends declare it is partially to avoid such annoyances during a period of rest that he will leave Saturday for his month's trip to Palm Beach, Texas, and the Panama Canal Zone.

Whether the president-elect and his party will make the detailed arrangements and spend the day in consultation with James Sloan, another former White House chief who left the service last June to accept a private post as Mr. Harding's personal bodyguard during the campaign.

In the exchange of telegrams today between Senator Harding and Governor Cox, no words were wasted on either side in reference to the fighting lines of the leaders of the campaign.

"In the spirit of America," telegraphed the governor, "I accept the decision of majority, tender as the defeated candidate my congratulations, and pledge as a citizen my support to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise."

To which Senator Harding replied: "As the successful candidate I thank you for your message of congratulation and pledge of support."

From former President William Howard Taft came this telegram: "I congratulate you and the nation and the world on your triumph and election by an unprecedented majority. I felicitate you and the country also upon your having a good working majority."

Now that the political complexion of the next administration is known definitely, gossip about cabinet selections is reviving and enough names to fill a cabinet are being mentioned in current rumors as likely timber for the official circle of President Harding. Both Mr. Harding and his close advisers have indicated, however, that all of these forecasts are purely speculative and that the question of choosing a cabinet is one yet to be taken up.

In this under-current of speculation, which apparently is without sanction of authority, the names heard most often as possible cabinet officials include those of Elihu Root, Philander C. Knox, Henry Cabot Lodge, Charles E. Hughes, Herbert Hoover, Major Leonard Wood, Governor Frank O. Lowden, former Senator John W. Weeks, Harry M. Daugherty and many others.

Resides cabinet officials, Mr. Harding will have an army of silver federal appointees to select, a fact which was brought to his realization with new force of republicans in each house of congress. The dignity, courtesy, sense of responsibility and self-reliance with which you have carried yourself in the campaign, under the greatest provocation to a different course, must, in retrospect, afford great satisfaction to yourself as they do to your supporters."

Charles Evans Hughes, who was the republican nominee of four years ago, telegraphed:

"My heartiest congratulations on your splendid victory. Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, the vice president-elect, joined Mrs. Coolidge in a message to the Senator and his wife congratulating them on the victory."

"Accept our congratulations on your efficient leadership and glorious victory," said the result, "passage every expectation. We are sure that you will more than fulfill the confidence the American people have placed in you."

Among the prominent democrats who sent congratulatory messages were: Thomas Taggart of Indiana, a former national chairman, and Bernard M. Baruch of New York, and numerous democratic members of the senate.

The St. Louis undertakers' union 'breasts' to boycott any man found alive in that village.

"The happiest time of one's life," supposed said she.

"Oh, yes, an instant of the future," Pearson's.

Bill—I'm going to start a new society right away.

Phil—For what purpose?

Phil—To induce motion picture producers to use only good words and stop cutting words in picture subtitles, so that the ignoramus who read them aloud will be fooled.—Film Fun.

"I'm bothered by the fact," said Mrs. Casey, owner of the back fence with her neighbor.

"The very best of all times is biscuits for them," suggested Mrs. Kelly.

"Now, Mrs. Kelly, what kind of a house do you think I'm running? Sure, if the baskets can't take what the rest of the do, they'll go hungry."—Houston Post.

"Strange," murmured the editor, "that this anecdote of Lincoln has never been in print before."

"Not at all," explained the occasional contributor, "I only thought it up last night."—Boston Transcript.

They were strolling on the pier.

"I spent my honeymoon here at this resort," said he.

"That is the happiest time of one's life," supposed said she.

"Oh, yes, an instant of the future," Pearson's.

Bill—I'm going to start a new society right away.

Phil—For what purpose?

Phil—To induce motion picture producers to use only good words and stop cutting words in picture subtitles, so that the ignoramus who read them aloud will be fooled.—Film Fun.

POETRY

THE CHILD AT THE DOOR
"Three hundred thousand of these suffering Americans are little children."—Theodore Garrison.
A child is crying beyond our door
In the cold and the wind and the wild downpour.
(How can we sit at ease within?)
A child is calling beyond our gate,
Staring and stark and desolate.
(How can we bid the feast begin?)
The doors of the world are heavy and tall,
But the cry of a child can pierce them all.
(A cry of a child in anguish sore.)
The child is crying beyond our door,
Till at our threshold and at our heart
(A child is crying beyond our door.)

THE WEAVER OF RUGS
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed a dream
And brooded the summer through;
With tender love he's plotted his theme
And now his dream's come true.
He's spread his carpet over the hills,
Soft is its silken sheen,
Of red and the color of doffed dyes,
Of rose and orange and green.
And a patch of blue reflecting there
The pattern of autumn skies;
The pattern vague, but hazy and companion
Are these clear, mysterious dyes.
Its knotted warp in the ground below
Holds its shimmering pile,
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed it so,
And this is its Maker's smile.

THE WEAVER OF RUGS
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed a dream
And brooded the summer through;
With tender love he's plotted his theme
And now his dream's come true.
He's spread his carpet over the hills,
Soft is its silken sheen,
Of red and the color of doffed dyes,
Of rose and orange and green.
And a patch of blue reflecting there
The pattern of autumn skies;
The pattern vague, but hazy and companion
Are these clear, mysterious dyes.
Its knotted warp in the ground below
Holds its shimmering pile,
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed it so,
And this is its Maker's smile.

THE WEAVER OF RUGS
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed a dream
And brooded the summer through;
With tender love he's plotted his theme
And now his dream's come true.
He's spread his carpet over the hills,
Soft is its silken sheen,
Of red and the color of doffed dyes,
Of rose and orange and green.
And a patch of blue reflecting there
The pattern of autumn skies;
The pattern vague, but hazy and companion
Are these clear, mysterious dyes.
Its knotted warp in the ground below
Holds its shimmering pile,
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed it so,
And this is its Maker's smile.

THE WEAVER OF RUGS
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed a dream
And brooded the summer through;
With tender love he's plotted his theme
And now his dream's come true.
He's spread his carpet over the hills,
Soft is its silken sheen,
Of red and the color of doffed dyes,
Of rose and orange and green.
And a patch of blue reflecting there
The pattern of autumn skies;
The pattern vague, but hazy and companion
Are these clear, mysterious dyes.
Its knotted warp in the ground below
Holds its shimmering pile,
The Weaver of Rugs has dreamed it so,
And this is its Maker's smile.

HUMOR OF THE DAY
Circus Man (searching for elephant that has escaped)—Say, Uncle Ezra, have you seen anything of an elephant around here?
Uncle Ezra—No, sah; I ain't seen no elephant, but I seen a big gray bull cat with mah corns on his hind saddle.

"I beg your pardon, but what is your name?" the hotel clerk asked.
"Name?" echoed the indignant guest, who had just signed the register. "Don't you see my signature there on the register?"
"I do," answered the clerk. "That is what aroused my curiosity."—De Laval Monthly.

The Missus (at 2 a. m.)—Now hour to arrive home and a nice state to arrive in, must say? Explain, you brute!
Himself—Of friend asked me to help him gather evidence of violations of the prohibition law, m'lord, an' I jus' (hic) couldn't refuse.—Buffalo Express.

A northern tourist got off the train in Arkansas to get a better view of a lion animal that was rubbing itself against a scrub oak. "What do you call that animal?" he asked a native.
"Raccoon," the native said.
"What's he rubbing himself against the tree for?"
"He's stoppin' himself, sah, jes' stoppin' himself,"—Patfinder.

"I notice," remarked Farmer Cornsnot, "that you also are a member of the north when you make up your mind to go fishing 'ere enough."

"That has been my custom," remarked the enthusiast.
"Well, damn it, but it's a good idea to get so far away that the fish can't be expected to keep a's you could show your catch inside of 'bargin' about it."—Washington Star.

"I'm bothered by the fact," said Mrs. Casey, owner of the back fence with her neighbor.
"The very best of all times is biscuits for them," suggested Mrs. Kelly.

"Now, Mrs. Kelly, what kind of a house do you think I'm running? Sure, if the baskets can't take what the rest of the do, they'll go hungry."—Houston Post.

"Strange," murmured the editor, "that this anecdote of Lincoln has never been in print before."

"Not at all," explained the occasional contributor, "I only thought it up last night."—Boston Transcript.

They were strolling on the pier.
"I spent my honeymoon here at this resort," said he.

"That is the happiest time of one's life," supposed said she.

"Oh, yes, an instant of the future," Pearson's.

Bill—I'm going to start a new society right away.

Phil—For what purpose?

Phil—To induce motion picture producers to use only good words and stop cutting words in picture subtitles, so that the ignoramus who read them aloud will be fooled.—Film Fun.

"I'm bothered by the fact," said Mrs. Casey, owner of the back fence with her neighbor.

"The very best of all times is biscuits for them," suggested Mrs. Kelly.

"Now, Mrs. Kelly, what kind of a house do you think I'm running? Sure, if the baskets can't take what the rest of the do, they'll go hungry."—Houston Post.

"Strange," murmured the editor, "that this anecdote of Lincoln has never been in print before."

"Not at all," explained the occasional contributor, "I only thought it up last night."—Boston Transcript.

They were strolling on the pier.
"I spent my honeymoon here at this resort," said he.

"That is the happiest time of one's life," supposed said she.

"Oh, yes, an instant of the future," Pearson's.

Bill—I'm going to start a new society right away.